BIRTHDAY GREETINGS WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

Whilst we tend to think of April 23rd as being St George's Day, we sometimes forget that it is also the anniversary of the birth and indeed death of William Shakespeare, our greatest playwright.

Sometime in April 1564 a baby was born in Stratford-upon-Avon to John and Mary Shakespeare. The child was baptised William on 26th April 1564 at Holy Trinity Church in that town and of course, he was destined to become widely recognised as the English language's greatest dramatist. In those days it was usual to wait three days after the birth of a child before the baptism, making William's birthday likely to be 23rd April.

Not much is known about his formative years but when he was just 18 he married 26 year old Anne Hathaway who, six months later gave birth to their first child, Susannah. This was followed two years later by the birth of twins Hammet and Judith. Little is known of his life between 1584 and 1592 although it is believed that in this later year he moved to London, primarily as an actor. This, however, was put on hold the following year when many of the theatres and other places of entertainment in London were closed due to an outbreak of the plague. He did, though, use the time to write two epic poems—Venus & Adonis and The Rape of Lucrece.

The following year he became a founder member of the Lord Chamberlain's Men, a group of actors who became the most influential theatre group in England. As well as a founder member, William Shakespeare was a stockholder, playwright and actor within the company.

The success of the group brought considerable wealth to all the main investors and with this money in 1597 Shakespeare was able to purchase New Place, the second largest property in Stratford.

Certainly when it came to money Shakespeare was an astute investor and in 1607 he purchased some 107 acres of land bordering the centre of Stratford and in 1605 he bought several houses in the town which he let out, bringing him an annual income of £60 (a not inconsiderable sum in those days).

By then his acting days were over and his writing had slowed to a trickle. Throughout his career he is known to have authored at least 39 plays himself plus several in association with other playwrights of the time. In addition he wrote some 154 sonnets as well as the two epic poems mentioned above.

In 2016 an auction of a book of 36 of Shakespeare's plays raised some £2.4 million, which at that time was a world record for a literary work. The buyer—an American collector of all things Shakespearian—then announced that the book would be the centrepiece of an exhibition that would tour the world. One of the most remarkable 'sales' of items connected with the Bard of Stratford was in 1998 when another American supposedly bought the Royal Shakespeare Theatre from a very convincing confidence trickster for £1 million!

Shakespeare died on 23rd April 1616, on his 52nd birthday. He was buried in the chancel of the nearby Holy Trinity Church. He left most of his estate to his elder daughter Susannah.

FACTS ABOUT SHAKESPEARE

- ★ In 2016 a tale about a Black Country version of Hamlet went viral. The story was that Stuart Ash, a postgraduate of the Birmingham School of Acting was performing Yamlet at various locations around the Black Country and South Staffordshire. Details of Yamlet were released on 1st April 2016.
- ★ Although it is known that Shakespeare wrote a play called Cardenio no copy of it now exists. It has been estimated that if a copy should be found it would be worth at least £10 million.

- ★ Shakespeare rarely signed his name in full. He most often signed as Willm Shappere.
- ★ In his works Shakespeare used over 25,000 different words. Most people have a vocabulary of no more than 6,000 words.
- On his grave are the words Curst be he who moves my bones.
- ★ The Comedy of Errors is Shakespeare's shortest play at 1,770 lines long.
- ★ In 1599 the Lord Chamberlain's Men (of whom Shakespeare was a leading member constructed their own theatre—the Globe—on London's South Bank.
