COMING UP

14th October, The Wednesday Club, 2pm. Ian Bott, "A Grave Subject". A macabre and entertaining look at the black Country way of death.

15th October, Thursday at 2 Club, 2pm. David Moore, "Weeping Angels". An appropriately eerie talk as the nights get darker and we approach Halloween.

11th November, The Wednesday Club, 2pm. Jane Frazer, "Percy Shakespeare". Percy Shakespeare was a talented artist from a poor family in Dudley. However, he was able to succeed in the art world even up to exhibiting at the Royal Academy. Jane will show many examples of his work which still arouse interest and admiration today, 80 plus years after his death.

At the Wordsley Ladies Group meeting on 3rd November at 2.00pm, the guest speaker will be Alan Peace. Alan is the past chairman of leading owl conservation organisation the World Owl Trust and he will be giving an illustrated talk about a special barn owl called "George" and the work of the World Owl Trust (no live birds are used in the talk.)

The meeting will be held at Holy Trinity Church, Wordsley. Alan has been involved with owls since taking part in the captive breeding and release of barn owls in the 1980's and he gets called out on "owl rescues" particularly to young tawny owls that have an irritating habit of falling out of the nest before they are able to fly.

PLEASE REMEMBER...if you run or are part of a club, society or church and would like us to include an entry in The Parish Pump on the run up to Christmas, please ensure you get your submissions over
